

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: THE THIRD ANNUAL WIT REGATTA COMES TO SEATTLE

SEATTLE—The Women in Tech Regatta \(WiT\) works to drive positive change and innovation for women in tech and workplace diversity. The third annual event will take place in Seattle from Monday, April 22 to Friday, April 26. Sessions kick off on Monday at 10 a.m. and the MotherSHIP Main Event will take place at The Collective on Tuesday, April 23 at 6:30 p.m.

The week-long event will have more than 50 sessions at numerous locations, or ports, across the city. Sessions are grouped thematically so attendees can create a personalized itinerary. This event is designed to give attendees access to mentors, peers, resources and the power of community.

The #SEAWIT19 event will include:

- Disruptive, compelling panels with women and men in tech
- Networking opportunities with women and men who are making a difference in the industry
- Breakout time during each session to connect, build relationships and share experiences and ideas to help one another move forward
- Select activities at the MotherSHIP Main Event like the following:
  - A resource reception featuring over 40 local organizations that support women and girls in tech
  - Virtual reality demo
  - Résumé review, job seeking advice and professional headshots
  - Speed coaching
  - Live podcasting

“We passionately believe in the power of community and strive to build new connections in our ever-growing ecosystem,” said Melody Biringer, connection engineer and WiT Regatta creator. “We will provide a powerful week brimming with opportunities to build your tribe and buoy your

About WiT Regatta

Founded in 2013, Women in Technology \(WIT\) is a not-for-profit organization which aims to support women by providing education and networking opportunities at quarterly events, as well as raising funds and visibility for mission-aligned nonprofit partners. The Regatta is produced by Melody Biringer’s Crave Company, which specializes in women’s business collaboration events.

Media Contact: Melody Biringer, 206-940-5249, melodybiringer@gmail.com

spirit, no oars required. Our goal is for everyone to be seen, heard and to walk away from this week with new ideas and relationships.”

To learn more about sessions, speakers, locations and sponsors, please click here. For ticket information, please click here.

About WiT Regatta

Founded in 2013, Women in Technology \(WIT\) is a not-for-profit organization which aims to support women by providing education and networking opportunities at quarterly events, as well as raising funds and visibility for mission-aligned nonprofit partners. The Regatta is produced by Melody Biringer’s Crave Company, which specializes in women’s business collaboration events.

Media Contact: Melody Biringer, 206-940-5249, melodybiringer@gmail.com